Technical Problems at CSD Resolved

27.03.2012/005

Summary: The technical problems that arose today at OeKB have been solved.

The Austrian Central Depository (OeKB) informed us that the communication problem concerning the transmission of status information on the transactions and confirmations has been eliminated.

Impact on investors: The operation of OeKB is back to normal, all status confirmations are now sent out without delay. MT548 messages and settlement confirmations are being distributed to UniCredit Bank Austria's clients automatically.
