CEO OF UNICREDIT BULBANK WAS RE-ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF THE ASSOCIATION OF THE BANK IN BULGARIA

09.04.2012/010

Summary: The Chairman of the Management Board and CEO of UniCredit Bulbank Mr. Levon Hampartzoumian was re-elected as Chairman of the Association of the Banks in Bulgaria.

Mr. Hampartzoumian was re-elected as Chairman of the Association of the Banks in Bulgaria (ABB) at the end of last week at the General Meeting of ABB.

Mr. Hampartzoumian is a member of AmCham BoD in Bulgaria, non-executive member of the Board of the Institute for Market Economy, the chairman of the Board of Trustees of Sofia University, a member of the Board of Trustees of Higher School of Insurance and Finance and a member of the Board of Trustees of City University of Seattle in Bulgaria.

ABB (www.abanksb.bg) represents the interests of the Bulgarian banking industry in many organizations and initiatives. It is a full member of the Banking Federation of the European Union, and of the European Payment Council. UniCredit Bulbank is a full member of ABB and the bank's employees are key participants in the committees of the Association, including but not limited to the Capital Markets Committee and the Working Group of Custodian Banks.

Impact on investors: Positive impact on the lobbying position of UniCredit Bulbank.
